MILFORD SOUND ~ A PHOTOGENIC MARVEL

In 1922, a rise in sea level caused by the melting of glacial ice flooded the Milford Sound basin. This event filled the valley with water, creating one of the world's most spectacular natural wonders. Today, the Milford Sound is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and a popular destination for tourists.

MILFORD SOUND EXPLORATION

Cruise Queen Charlotte Sound, Doubtful Sound and Te Anau Sound, with a stop in Milford Sound. Enjoy a wine, beer and soda package while on board. Visit Te Anau, the gateway to Milford Sound, and explore the region's breathtaking landscapes. The region is characterized by its lush rainforests, dramatic fiords, and pristine waterways. Explore the region's abundant wildlife, including dolphins, seals, and rare New Zealand birds such as the yellow-eyed penguin.

MILFORD SOUND EXTENSIONS

Extend your experience in Milford Sound with a stay in Queenstown, the adventure capital of New Zealand. Experience the region's stunning scenery, abundance of outdoor activities, and rich Maori culture. Visit the Maori Cultural Village, the cultural heart of the region, and enjoy a traditional Maori welcome and cultural performance.

EXTENSIONS IN AUCKLAND, NEW ZEALAND

Plan an extension in Auckland, the commercial and financial center of New Zealand. Visit the iconic Sky Tower, the world's tallest free-standing structure, and explore the city's vibrant art and culture scene. Experience the region's natural beauty, including the Waitematā Harbour and the Coromandel Peninsula.

EXTENSIONS IN SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA

Milford Sound

A Photogenic Marvel

New Zealand’s Milford Sound is one of the most iconic waterways in the world. Nestled in Fiordland National Park, this breathtaking fjord is carved into the rugged, windswept mountains of the South Island. With its deep blue water, cascading waterfalls, and lush rainforests, Milford Sound is a true haven for outdoor and wildlife enthusiasts.

The Eighth Wonder of the World

Milford Sound is often rated among the world’s best cities. Its dramatic setting of “Middle Earth” in the Lord of the Rings film trilogy has captured the imaginations of filmgoers worldwide. The sound is home to a variety of marine life, including rare Hector’s dolphins and the critically endangered yellow-eyed penguin. Visitors can also enjoy a bird-watching excursion or tour to see the spectacular Milford Sound up close.

Explore the Fjords

Milford Sound is just one of many stunning fjords on the South Island. From the dramatic Milford Sound to the more remote Doubtful Sound and Mt. Aspiring National Park, there is something for everyone on a New Zealand cruise.

Sail the Breadth of This Awe-Inspiring Land

Prepare yourself: New Zealand will leave you breathless and yearning for more. From the North Island’s vibrant cities and wineries to the South Island’s mountain ranges and unspoiled wilderness, this is New Zealand, an unbridled freedom and adventure playground.

Optional Excursions Available at an Additional Cost

- Explore the lush green landscapes of the North Island on a one- or two-night cruise, or enjoy the sunshine along Otago Peninsula amid fur seals, sea lions, and rare Hector’s dolphins.
- Set out on a Tauranga excursion to discover the city’s unique Art Deco district and enjoy a bird-watching excursion or tour.
- Experience Maori culture during an evening show or an AHI Travel Director-led tour of Rotorua.
- Discover wineries in Hawke’s Bay, one of New Zealand’s most famous wine regions, and enjoy a bird-watching excursion or tour.
- Sail Sydney Harbour during an additional charge.
