A Champagne Primer.

Orchards have been producing wine in this region since the 5th century, when monks were credited with discovering a new way to preserve grapes. During the 17th century, Champagne became a beverage of choice among notables after local scientists perfected the process of creating sparkling wine. Today, the Abbey of Saint-Remi and the Palace of Tau are UNESCO World Heritage Sites.

In 1917, George M. Cohan penned “Over There,” a song celebrating soldiers fighting in World War I. This year, which was already its 100th anniversary, saw events commemorating the war’s end. The song’s message today is “The Yanks are coming,” as one of the four towns that hosted the great champagne fairs. Twice a year, vendors from around the world assemble in Reims to celebrate the region and its eponymous wine. The town’s famous resident was the 17th-century monk, Father Germain de Ronchamp, who invented the modern method of making sparkling wine. Today, the town is known for its champagne cellars.

Dear Arizona Alumni and Friends,

We invite you to join us on a fascinating journey through one of the most historically and culturally important regions of France. Based in the charming city of Reims, we’ll explore the significant World War I battlefields and visit the memorials, as well as delve into the cultural history of Champagne, the world-famous celebrated drink and a true French icon. We’ll visit acclaimed Champagne houses, descend into the chalk caves that have been turned into wine cellars and walk among the fine points of Champagne during three tastings. This trip combines the security, ease, and value of group travel with opportunities for independent exploration. Enjoy the camaraderie of traveling with a group and, during your free days, test the thrill of making your own discovery.

Warm regards from Wildcat Country,

Lisa Valentine
