Dear Arizona Alumni and Friends,

With an eye on our ongoing mission to preserve the individual traditions of the local people, from the desert's cultural heritage and the natural beauty of its lands to the history of its people, this trip offers a fascinating focal point for two of the world's major religions — Judaism and Christianity. Through spiritual pilgrimages to shrines and sacred sites, and through the experiences of local traditions and culture, we will explore the rich history and current events. The breadth of their knowledge deepens your appreciation for the region.

We are pleased to offer an all-inclusive package that includes airfare and accommodations. This trip is designed for travelers 50 and over, and is not valid toward the purchase of an AHI Cruises or a land program, plus baggage handling.

To learn more about the trip, please contact us at 800-323-7373.
