Dear Alumni and Friends:

Enshrined with over 5,000 years of human history, the storied lands of Greece, Egypt and Jordan stand at the crossroads of religion and cultural enlightenment. Portals of antiquity lead to a treasure trove of ancient wonders and UNESCO marvels that defy the limits of the imagination. The pharaonic riches of Egypt, the “rose-red city” of Petra, and the achingly beautiful Greco-Roman temples of Jerash summon awe and wonder like few places on Earth.

Join us on this epic, custom-designed 14-day journey like no other to the classical world’s very cradle of civilization. Visit three continents, navigate the legendary waterways of the Red Sea, Gulf of Aqaba, Mediterranean Sea and Aegean Sea, transit the seminal Suez Canal and see up to seven magnificent UNESCO World Heritage sites. Cruise for eight nights aboard the exclusively chartered, Five-Star Le Bellot, which features just 92 elegant Suites and Staterooms, each with a private balcony.

Visit the historic Library of Alexandria. Stand in the shadows of the three iconic pyramids of Giza, an incredible engineering feat that still dominates the horizon and stands guarded by the inscrutable Great Sphinx. Enjoy excursions to the revered sites of the Nile Valley city of Thebes, including the magnificent Karnak Temple Complex, Luxor Temple and specially arranged access to Queen Nefertari’s tomb in the Valley of the Queens. Follow in the footsteps of the nomadic Bedouins across Wadi Rum, an orange-hued sea of sand where Lawrence of Arabia established his base.

On our Pre-Program Option, visit the spectacular remnants of Ancient Greece, including the Acropolis and Delphi. Extend your journey on our Post-Program Option to visit the Holy Land, including archaeological sites and biblical reference points featuring Jerusalem, Masada, the Dead Sea and the Sea of Galilee.

This exclusive, expertly designed itinerary offers incomparable opportunities to explore antiquity, cruise along ancient trade routes and immerse yourself in the dazzling panorama of human history. Make reservations on this unique program while space and Early Booking Savings are still available.

Sincerely,

Athens, Greece
The birthplace of democracy and home to many of history’s greatest philosophers and poets, the ancient city of Athens is unmatched in its contributions to early Western civilization.

Santorini
Widely considered to be the site of the mythical lost city of Atlantis, Santorini overlooks a submerged caldera, the result of one of the most cataclysmic volcanic eruptions in history. Its picture-perfect whitewashed villages of sugar-cube houses and blue-domed churches cascade to serene waters.

The remarkable Bronze Age ruins of Akrotiri, held intact by layers of pumice and ash for over 3,500 years, reveal the architectural sophistication and advanced culture of its Minoan inhabitants. Findings from Akrotiri are elegantly exhibited in the Museum of Prehistoric Thera.

By cable car, descend from Fira, where stunning white-walled buildings stand in stark contrast against slate-colored volcanic cliffs.

Alexandria, Egypt
The fulcrum of the ancient Hellenic world, Alexandria is Egypt’s most beguiling city. Tour legendary Alexandria, founded by 25-year-old Alexander the Great in 331 B.C. Imposing Qaitbey Fort was built on top of the remains of the Lighthouse of Alexandria—one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World—and has served as a stronghold since 1480. The Library of Alexandria, with its vast archive of over 140,000 manuscripts and papyrus scrolls, formed a magnet for the ancient world’s greatest scientists, from Euclid to Archimedes. The Library’s visionary reincarnation, the Bibliotheca Alexandrina, constructed in 2002, resembles a giant discus adorned with hieroglyphs, symbolizing a second sun rising.

Suez Canal Transit
One of the most momentous voyages between continents transits the 120-mile Suez Canal, Egypt’s glorious, Victorian-era engineering achievement.

12 AMMAN
13 AMMAN/JERASH/AMMAN
14 AMMAN/Return to the U.S.

The Holy Land Post-Program Option
UNESCO World Heritage Site
The canal was first conceived in the 1830s by French explorer and engineer Linant de Bellefonds and opened in 1869. Connecting the Mediterranean Sea to the Red Sea, the canal reduced the journey between Europe and South Asia by over 4,000 miles, redefining international maritime trade.

The Great Pyramids of Giza
The last remaining Wonder of the Ancient World, the pyramids of the Old Kingdom pharaohs Cheops, Chephren and Mycerinus comprise the Great Pyramids of Giza and are enduring symbols of the glory of Egypt that have towered over the Western Desert for nearly 5,000 years.

See the iconic Great Sphinx, carved from a single mass of limestone with the body of a lion and head of a pharaoh. This marvel of human sculpture is speculated to date from Egypt's fourth dynasty.

Temples of Luxor and Karnak
The treasures and architectural legacy of fabled Thebes—the imperial ancient capital of Egypt's New Kingdom—are revealed at stunning Karnak and Luxor Temples. Karnak's vast complex of obelisks, shrines and sanctuaries reaches its apogee with the hypostyle hall, comprised of 134 colossal stone columns arranged in rows and etched with hieroglyphs. Luxor Temple's exquisite bas-reliefs depict seminal events, such as Ramses' victory at the Battle of Kadesh in 1274 B.C. The dramatic Avenue of the Sphinxes once stretched from Karnak to Luxor, forming the spiritual and economic nexus of the region.

The Valley of the Kings and Valley of the Queens
Framed by arid Theban hills, the Nile's west bank's hallowed Necropolis is replete with spectacular memorial temples built to perpetuate the cult of the pharaoh. In the Valley of the Kings, 63 illustrious pharaohs of Egypt's New Kingdom and their worldly wealth were laid to rest in tombs engraved with hieroglyphs.

Dr. Tarek Sayed Tawfik Ahmed, internationally acclaimed Egyptologist, will present exclusive lectures about the culture, way of life and iconic creations of ancient Egypt.
Ancient passageways descend to the burial chambers of King Ramses IV—where a rare image of the goddess Nut is emblazoned across a blue ceiling—and the 3,300-year-old tomb of boy king Tutankhamen. In the Valley of the Queens, enjoy a specially arranged visit to Queen Nefertari's tomb, lauded as the most resplendent Theban burial site. The beauty of Ramses II’s favorite queen is enshrined in the spectacular wall paintings and divine images of her likeness.

Wadi Rum
Shaped and smoothed by millennia of winter floods and desert wind and sand, Wadi Rum was aptly described by British soldier and diplomat T. E. Lawrence, the legendary Lawrence of Arabia, as “vast, echoing and godlike.” Known as the Valley of the Moon, this region has seen human activity for nearly 12,000 years. This ethereal landscape of grooved canyons, soaring mountains, undulating sand dunes and rocky caverns is best experienced from a four-passenger open-air vehicle.

Petra
The inspiring, ancient “rose-red city” of Petra is a UNESCO World Heritage site and one of the New Seven Wonders of the World. Petra reached its zenith during the first century B.C. as the capital of the nomadic Bedouin Nabataean Empire. Concealed behind towering rocks, the city ignited Western scholarly interest when Swiss explorer Johann Ludwig Burckhardt was led through the Siq—a narrow, serpentine gorge—to Petra’s spellbinding Khazneh (Treasury) by a Bedouin guide in 1812. The site’s majestic ensemble of temples, dwellings and tombs, carved directly into the sandstone cliff face, still holds a wondrous, mythical appeal.

Amman, Jordan
Amman’s wealth of archaeological artifacts and ancient ruins reflect centuries of diverse cultural influences. This biblical Ammonite city was conquered and renamed Philadelphia by Egypt’s King Ptolemy II Philadelphus in the third century B.C. Expanded by the Romans, Philadelphia flourished for nearly four centuries as the heart of Roman Arabia.

Beautifully preserved Qaitbey Fort was built to defend Alexandria from the Ottoman Empire.

Feel the humbling scale of the hypostyle hall at Karnak Temple, one of the largest religious structures ever built.

Visit Roman Jerash, including the Nymphaeum, the city’s main ornamental fountain.
Luxury Small Ship, Innovative Design
Le Bellot, launched in 2020, represents a new generation of Five-Star small ships, combining revolutionary design and a new standard of luxury. Dock in smaller ports inaccessible to larger ships.

Respect for the Environment
A new addition to the Ponant “Clean Ship” fleet, an important certification among ocean-cruising vessels, Le Bellot is energy efficient and eco-friendly, protecting fragile marine ecosystems.

Chic and Casual Dining
Dine indoors or alfresco on international and regional cuisine served in the stylish restaurant, at the casual pool deck grill or from 24-hour room service. Meals include full breakfast service, lunch, afternoon tea and four-course dinner.

Elegant Suites and Staterooms,
100% with Private Balconies
Each of the 92 Five-Star Staterooms and Suites (up to 484 square feet) features a private balcony. Grand Deluxe Suites have a bay window and spacious private terrace. Accommodations offer two twin beds or one queen bed, individual climate control, private bathroom with a shower and luxury hotel-style amenities.

Life on Board
Enjoy views from the indoor-outdoor lounges and educational lectures, cultural performances or film screenings in the state-of-the-art theater. Relax in the spa, infinity-style swimming pool or the Blue Eye underwater Observation Lounge. The ship has a beauty salon, a fitness room and three elevators. Complimentary Wi-Fi access is available (conditions permitting).

World-Class Service
The highly trained, English-speaking crew is personable and attentive, and the ship has a medical center staffed with a doctor and a nurse.

Today, Amman’s plethora of Roman ruins stand testament to the Roman Empire’s long-reaching and enduring influence. From the Citadel, see the towering columns of the Temple of Hercules looming over the Jordan’s cosmopolitan capital, where the magnificent, 6,000-seat Roman Theater, dating from the second century, forms the city’s centerpiece and still stages performances.

Jerash
Historical Jerash, established as a town during the reign of Alexander the Great, was officially ushered into the Roman Empire after Pompey’s conquest in 64 B.C. Often invoked as the “Pompeii of Asia,” Jerash’s ancient, remarkably preserved colonnaded avenues, ceremonial gates and golden-hued temples speak to its stature as one of the Roman Decapolis’s most important cities.

Marvel at prodigious Hadrian’s Arch at the city’s entrance and dating to 129 A.D., the intricately carved Temples of Artemis and Zeus and the immense scale and sublime architecture of the historic Forum.

By reserving and depositing on this program, I/we agree to the Release of Liability, Assumption of Risk and Binding Arbitration Agreement as printed on the outside back cover of this brochure.

Final payment due September 9, 2021; make by check or wire transfer only. No land/cruise cancellation fees for new bookings until 51 days prior to trip departure.
RELEASE OF LIABILITY, ASSUMPTION OF RISK AND BINDING ARBITRATION AGREEMENT
RESPONSIBILITY: Thomas P. Gohagan & Company, University of Arizona, and its and their employees, shareholders, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors or trustees, successors, and assigns (collectively “Gohagan”), do not own or operate any entity which is to or does provide goods or services for your program including, for example, lodged facilities, airline, vessel, or other transportation companies, guides or guide services, local ground operators, providers or organizers of optional excursions, food service or entertainment providers, etc. All such persons and entities are independent contractors. As a result, Gohagan is not liable for any negligent or willful act, failure to act, financial failure or other defaults of any such person, entity, supplier or any other third party.

In addition and without limitation, Gohagan is not responsible for any injury, financial or other loss, death, inconvenience, delay, or damage to person or property in connection with the provision of any goods or services whether resulting from, but not limited to, acts of God or force majeure, acts or orders of government, denial or delay of entry into any country, acts of war or civil unrest, suspension or revolt, bites from or attacks by animals, insects or pests, strikes or other labor activities, criminal or terrorist activities of any kind or the threat thereof, sickness, illness, epidemics or the threat thereof, the lack of availability of or access to medical attention or the quality thereof, overbooking or downgrading of accommodations, mechanical or other failure of airplanes, vessels or other forms of transportation, or for any failure of any transportation mechanism to arrive or depart timely or safely. Further, I release Gohagan from its own negligence and assume all risk thereof.

If due to weather, flight schedules or other uncontrollable factors, you are required to spend an additional night(s), you will be responsible for your own arrangements and associated fees. Baggage is entirely at owner’s risk. The right is reserved to decide to accept as a program participant, or to remove from the program, without refund, any person Gohagan judges to be incapable of meeting the norms and requirements of participating in the activities, or who is abusive to other program participants, leaders or third parties, or who Gohagan determines to detract from the enjoyment of the program by others. Specific room/cabin assignments are within the sole discretion of the hotel or cruise line.

Gohagan reserves the right to change the itinerary or program features at any time and for any reason, with or without notice, and Gohagan shall not be liable for any loss of any kind as a result of any such changes. Ship schedules, port calls, hours of arrival or departure, sightseeing events, special programs and guest lecture series (if applicable), are subject to change or cancellation. Gohagan reserves the right to substitute motorcoach transportation using hotels, air travel or lodges for cruise accommodations if necessary due to weather, water conditions or levels, other acts of force majeure, mechanical or other conditions beyond the control of Gohagan. Gohagan is not responsible therefore and is not required to compensate passengers under these circumstances. Gohagan may cancel or postpone a program (or an option) for any reason whatsoever. If so, for cancellations based upon acts of God or force majeure, acts or orders of government, epidemics or the threat thereof, terrorism or the threat thereof, strikes or labor disturbances, demontrations, lockouts or embargoes, criminal or supplier default or insolvency, or for other similar circumstances, its sole obligation is to issue credits in the full amount of moneys paid to Gohagan to the extent its suppliers are crediting Gohagan with these monies paid by Gohagan to them. Under no circumstances is Gohagan obligated to refund the cost of any purchased travel insurance. Gohagan is not required to cancel any program for unforeseeable circumstances. United States Department of State, Centers for Disease Control, World Health Organization or other Warnings or Advisories of any kind.

Gohagan is not responsible for fees assessed by air carriers resulting from operational and/or itinerary changes, even if Gohagan makes the flight arrangements or cancels the flight. Gohagan reserves the right to substitute vessels, hotels or attractions of a similar category for those listed in this brochure.

NOT INCLUDED: Taxes; passport, visas and associated fees; COVID-19 related expenses and associated fees; personal expenses such as laundry, telephone calls and internet access or any other expenses unless specifically otherwise described; accident/sickness, trip interruption, creditor, or traveler’s medical insurance; patriotic or church trip to Israel and/or holidays; optional sightseeing excursions; baggage charges on aircraft; local departure air/airport tax(e)(s); airfare and associated local taxes, airport facility and security taxes and federal inspection fees not listed as included in the travel program; transfers and baggage handling at the airport or in port; baggage or ship to and from the airport or hotel; if you are arriving earlier or later than or/and departing earlier or later than the scheduled group transfer(s); any overnight on land due to flight schedule(s); meals, alcoholic or other beverages and all other services not specifically mentioned as included in the travel program.

AIRFARE: Airfare is subject to change and availability and, depending on the fare basis, tickets are nonrefundable. Your airline ticket constitutes a contract between you and the airline, even if purchased through Gohagan.

LUGGAGE: Luggage allowance policies are set by the airlines and may change without notice.

PHYSICAL ACCESSIBILITY: All programs require physical independence and mobility. Any physical or mental condition that may require special medical attention or physical assistance must be brought to the attention of Gohagan, in writing when you make your reservation. Participants must be able to board or disembark motorcoaches alone or with minimal assistance from your traveling companion and climb stairs and step over raised thresholds without assistance. Participants requiring assistance must travel in groups of two. Gohagan reserves the right to substitute vessels, hotels or attractions of a similar category for those listed in this brochure.

DISCOUNTED RESERVATIONS: Discounts apply only to those reservations received in the offices of Gohagan in writing, accompanied by the required deposit. In the event a “discounted” reservation must be cancelled, no “replacement” reservation can be substituted at the discounted rate. A “replacement reservation” is a new reservation and will be instituted only at the full-fare tariff. Cancellation penalties may apply.

CANCELLATIONS: Cancellations for all or any part of the program including pre-/post-program(s) reservation(s) will not be effective unless received in writing in the offices of Gohagan. For New Bookings: All cancellation fees will be waived from the time of booking through 51 days prior to departure for main program and 50 days or less prior to departure for pre-/post-program option bookings. Thereafter, cancellation fees apply as follows: 50 days or less prior to departure: A cancellation fee of 100% of the tariff paid, including fees paid for pre- and/or post-program options. In the event of a travel program cancellation 50 days or less prior to departure, the refund will be credit, usable on a future Gohagan trip which commences on or before December 31, 2023.
